

Thank you to everyone who made a donation towards our new project between September 2016 – March 2017.

With gratitude to our donors.

We organized a campaign from September 2016 – March 2017 to raise funds to start up a day centre for survivors of domestic violence and abuse. Thank you to everyone who contributed a total of ¥4,328,713 !

Also, many thanks not only to the donors, but to all the people who signed their names to the fundraising campaign promotional flier, and who organized and attended charity events.

Our heartfelt gratitude goes out to everyone who has supported this campaign. The funds will be used to support survivors in recovery.

We would like to express here our gratitude and intention to work to fulfill the expectations of our supporters. We look forward to your continuing support in the coming years.

Ikuno Gakuen, registered as a non-profit organization (NPO) since 2001, was licensed as a Certified Non-Profit Organization on April 22, 2016.

Out of all the NPOs, only organizations that can be objectively verified as in the highest public interest and with sound operation and management practices are able to be licensed by the regional government as a Certified Non-Profit Organization.

Thank you to everyone who has supported Ikuno Gakuen all these years.

We were able to be certified thanks to you, and we look forward to your continuing support.

The biggest benefit is that now that we have received the certification, you can obtain a tax exemption for donations to Ikuno Gakuen. This includes income tax, local taxes for residents of Osaka City and Osaka Prefecture, inheritance tax, and corporate taxes. For more information, please contact your local tax office.
